*Savour the delights of Saint-Emilion wine region of Bordeaux France in a private tasting with expert Gerald Sacks. Gerald is President of The Oxford Guild of Sommeliers, a Jurat and Chancellor of the Jurade for South of England and Wales. This is a truly unique chance to learn from one of the worlds experts. Saint-Émilion wines are predominantly made from Merlot and Cabernet Franc. There have been vineyards around Saint-Émilion since Roman times, and they continue to produce high quality wines to this day.
